

FRATERNITY STUDY ABROAD

WHEN

Spring Semester 2018

WHERE

Rome, Umbria, & Florence Italy

WHAT

IAH 221c or ISS 315 credit

How Much

FEE/FLIGHT ~ $3,395 (before scholarships based on 2018 costs)

TOPICS: Leadership • Leadership Styles • Professional Development • History of Fraternal Organizations • Masculinity Past, Present, and Future • Contemporary Issues Facing Men in College

More info online:

<https://osa.isp.msu.edu/Programs/program/index/108708>

MORE INFO

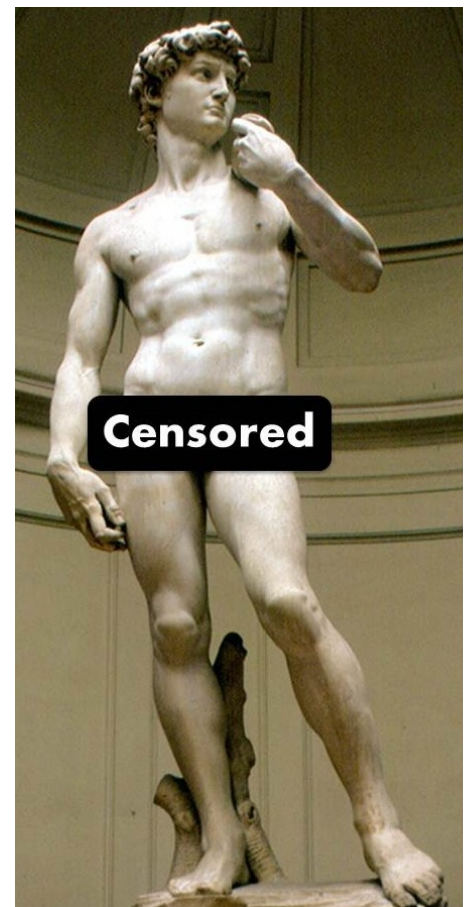

JIM LUCAS

lucasjam@msu.edu

DEADLINE

ASAP

EARLIER THE BETTER
NEED TO START CLASS
IN JAN. '19

Program Details

- 2.5 hours of class for Spring Semester with travel during Spring Break
- Honors Option available
- Scholarships Available from IFC, MSU, and other sources
- Email Jim Lucas to discuss your participation, and then apply online at educationabroad.msu.edu

What's special about this program:

- Created by MSU fraternity men for other fraternity members interested in leadership and issues facing college-aged men
- Only course on campus devoted to fraternity life, leadership, and men's issues
- Special program pricing: no cost for instruction or staff time

Field Experiences & Topics

- Role of male leaders in classical, Medieval, Renaissance, and Modern Italy
- Roman history and archeology, with a focus on male organizations and groups, such as gladiators
- Comparison of modern Italian culture and manifestations of masculinity to a United States context
- Papal history, leadership, and role of the Catholic Church
- Visits to: Vatican and St. Paul's Cathedral, the Coliseum, the Roman Forum, David statue, as well as various monuments, churches, and historic sites related to prominent Italian leaders

